ORDER IN COUNCIL.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, VICTORIA.
29th December, 1906.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS the provisions of section 98 of the “Provincial Elections Act” require a Deputy Returning Officer, and every officer, clerk or agent authorised to attend at a polling station or at the counting of votes, to make a statutory declaration of secrecy in the Form H in the Schedule to the said Act, in the presence of a Justice of the Peace or of the Returning Officer; and

Whereas at certain polling places established in accordance with the provisions of the said Act there is no resident Justice of the Peace; and

Whereas the declaration required of a Deputy Returning Officer by section 76 of the said Act may be subscribed in the presence of two electors of the district;

On the recommendation of the Honourable the Provincial Secretary and under the provisions of 2 Edward VII, chapter 58, “Redistribution Act, 1902,”

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that in order to obviate the difficulty-aforementioned, the declaration of secrecy required by section 98 may be made and subscribed before two electors in the manner prescribed by section 76 of the “Provincial Elections Act,” in all cases where a Justice of the Peace is not available.

FRED. J. FULTON,
Clerk, Executive Council.

“WATER CLAUSES CONSOLIDATION ACT, 1897,” AND AMENDMENT ACTS.

CERTIFICATE OF THE CANADIAN INDUSTRIAL COMPANY, LIMITED, UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 87 OF PART IV. OF THE SAID ACT.

WHEREAS the Pacific Coast Power Company, Limited, was on the 24th day of September, 1904, granted a certificate under Section 87 of Part IV. of the aforesaid Act for certain purposes, and was thereby empowered to carry out the undertaking in the said certificate mentioned; and

Whereas, since the date of the said certificate, the Canadian Industrial Company, Limited, hereinafter called “the Company,” authorised and licensed on the 17th day of March, 1906, to carry on, in the Province of British Columbia, the business of a Power Company within the meaning of Part IV. of the aforesaid Act, has acquired a record of 48,000 inches of water to be diverted from Powell Lake, Malaspina Strait, granted the 10th day of May, 1899, to the Pacific Coast Power Company, Limited; and

Whereas the Company has acquired certain lands known as Lots 450 and 1,901A, New Westminster District, within which the corporate powers of the Company in respect of its undertaking and works are to be exercised; and

Whereas the Company has submitted its undertaking to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for approval, and has filed with the Clerk of the Executive Council the documents required by Section 85 of the said Act, and a plan showing, so far as may be, the intended situation of the undertaking and works of the Power Company:

This is to certify that the undertaking has been approved and that the same is as follows:—

1. To develop the water which the Company has acquired with as great a head as shall be practicable and desirable, and to dispose of the power so developed to other industries which may be established in the vicinity of the proposed site, and especially to works for the manufacture of pulp and paper.

2. To erect buildings and a wharf at some convenient point on the shore of the Strait of Georgia; to make roads from the wharf to the different points of construction; to clear off timber and to level, where necessary, the land required by the Company; to construct a dam or dams at convenient points between the head of the Falls and Powell Lake to the height not exceeding 50 feet above the present river level, and to raise the level of Powell River and Powell Lake to a height not exceeding the height of the crest of the said dam, and to extend the area thereby of the said river and lake and to draw off the water so stored; to erect head-gates at the point of intake; to place a slip in the said dam at least six feet deep from the crest of the said dam and nine feet wide, for the transportation of timber, logs or lumber; to make such cuttings, flumes, conduits and tunnels as may be necessary or advisable to convey the water from the intake to the most convenient point from which to conduct it to the turbines; to provide steel pipes to convey the water from the conduit pipes to and from the turbines; to provide turbines, valves, gearing, shafting, belting, dynamos, and such other machinery as may be necessary for the purposes of the undertaking of the Company; to construct the necessary trail-races for the discharge of the water from the turbines.

And this is further to certify that the amount of the capital of the Company which will be duly subscribed before the Company commences the construction of its undertaking and works and exercises the powers conferred by the said Act is hereby fixed at not less than the sum of ($50,000) fifty thousand dollars, and ($50,000) fifty thousand dollars of such capital shall be subscribed and fifty per centum thereof actually paid up within six months from the date hereof; and the times within which the undertaking and works are to be commenced and completed are six months and two and one-half years, respectively, from the date hereof.

Dated this 12th day of December, A. D. 1906.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 1,633.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Muirhead and Mann Lumber Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of sixty thousand dollars, divided into six hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 14th day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase, acquire and take over the business now carried on under the firm name and style of Muirhead and Mann, in the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia, together with all those pieces or parcels of land being Lots 137, 138, 217, 119 and 337, of Block 70, Victoria City, with all the foreshore rights, buildings, erections, plant, machinery and stock-in-trade, on, in and about the said land and premises as a current going business:

(b.) To manufacture, buy, sell and deal in logs, timber, lumber, shingles, fuel, pulp, sashes, doors, boxes, ties and all articles manufactured from wood, and in all kinds of building material and building supplies, including lumber, stone, brick, tiles, cement, marble, tools, implements and machinery:

(c.) To acquire, build, hold, purchase, lease, sell, mortgage, operate, conduct, manage and dispose of saw-mills, planing mills, houses, buildings, factories, wharves, docks, stone quarries, brick-yards, coal mines, clay and plaster beds, timber limits, timber leases, standing timber, and real and personal property of all kinds:

(d.) To carry on the business of contractors and builders in all its branches:

(e.) To own, operate, conduct and manage stores, magazines and all other places for storing, selling and disposing of goods, either to employees of the Company or to the public generally, or both:

(f.) To purchase or otherwise legally acquire, own and hold any water rights and water privileges; to construct and maintain dams, sluices and reservoirs for the purpose of developing water power, driving logs, and to take all necessary steps to acquire the powers granted by the "Rivers and Streams Act":

(g.) To acquire, construct, operate, purchase, lease and hold on the property of the Company, convenient tramways, skidways and logging railways; to have the right to instal and use water, steam, electricity or any other motive power in and about any of the Company's buildings, properties or works, and also to have and acquire and operate steamboats and any other boats, scows, barges and vessels for the purposes of the Company, and to charge and collect tolls for freight and passengers carried thereon:

(h.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any services rendered or other valuable consideration received:

(i.) To pay all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(j.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To acquire and hold shares in the capital stock of other companies engaged in a similar business; to amalgamate with any other company pursuing the like or any similar objects, and to act as agents for other persons, firms or corporations:

(m.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(n.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(o.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognised in any Province or Territory in the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere:

(p.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(q.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. de20

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Bay Gold Mining Company, Limited," "Non-Personal Liability," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of two hundred thousand dollars, divided into two hundred thousand shares of one dollar each.

The Company is specially limited under section 56 of said Act.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 17th day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six.

S. Y. WOOLTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase the "Bay Fractional" mineral claim, situate in the Osoyoos Mining Division of Yale District, Province of British Columbia, and also to lease, bond, locate or otherwise acquire any mineral claims, mineral lands, mines, and any real estate in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to pay for the same either in money or fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares, and to sell or lease or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them:

(b.) To raise, crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate and prepare for market, ore, metal and mineral substances of all kinds, whether the property of the Company or not, in British Columbia, and to carry on any metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, or which may seem capable of being usefully or profitably carried on in connection with the other business of the Company; and to sell, dispose of and deal in any ore, metal and mineral substances resulting from or to be obtained in the process of milling, crushing, smelting, refining or manufacturing the same, and either free or in combination with other substances:

(c.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(d.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(e.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(f.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(g.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company and the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commission for obtaining application for or placing shares, and to apply, at the cost of the Company, to Parliament for any extension of the Company's powers:

(h.) To sell, let, develop, dispose of, or otherwise deal with the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, upon any terms, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stock or obligations of any other company:

(i.) To procure the Company to be registered in any place or country:

(j.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(k.) Nothing hereinbefore contained shall give or be construed to give to this Company any greater or further powers than are permitted to a company incorporated as a company having non-personal liability under the "Companies Act, 1897," and all the objects hereinbefore expressed are hereby restricted to acquiring, managing, developing, working and selling mines, mineral claims and mining properties, and the mining, getting, treating, refining and treating of mineral therefrom. de20

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Gilley Bros., Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into five hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 17th day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business and assets and goodwill of the business of contractors, merchants and wharfingers now carried on by Walter R. Gilley, under the name of Gilley Brothers, at the City of New Westminster, in the Province of British Columbia, together with all real and personal property thereto appertaining, and to pay for the same in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such shares, and to hold, work, sell, manage, improve, turn to account or otherwise dispose of or deal with the same, or any part thereof or interest therein:

(b.) To carry on the business of general merchants, carriers by water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, commission agents, contractors, quarry operators, loggers and any other business which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the above:

(c.) To charter, hire, build and operate steam and other ships or vessels, and to acquire by purchase, lease, licence or otherwise, and to own, hold and possess in fee simple, or otherwise, in the Province of British Columbia, lands, water lots, leases, licences, timber lands, wharves, warehouses, driving rights under the "Rivers and Streams Act," and any other franchises or privileges:

(d.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property or liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(e.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in or stocks or bonds of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(f.) To increase the capital of the Company by the issue of new shares, of such amount as may by the Company be thought expedient, or to consolidate and divide capital into shares of larger amounts than the amount hereby fixed, or to subdivide the said shares into shares of smaller amounts than the amount hereby fixed, or to convert paid-up shares into stock, or to reduce the capital to such an extent and in such manner as may be determined, and to issue share warrants, bonds and debentures when deemed expedient:

(g.) To draw receipts, indorse documents, execute and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities:

(h.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and for such purpose to distinguish and separate capital from profits, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(i.) To borrow, or raise or secure payment of money in such manner as the Board of Directors may see fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future) including its uncalled capital, and to redeem and pay off any such securities:

(j.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(k.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To pay the costs, charges and expenses preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment and registration of the Company, and to remunerate, by commission or otherwise, any person for services rendered or to be rendered in relation to the formation and establishment of the Company or to the conduct of its business, or placing, or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing, of any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company?

(m.) To do all such things as the Company may think incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them. de20

(d.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(e.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive, or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to use, exercise, develop or grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights or information so acquired:

(g.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, protection of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(h.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares and debentures or debenture stock in any other company having objects, altogether or in part, similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, or the debentures of any municipality or Government:

(i.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, which may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(j.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(k.) To act as agents for any manufacturer of wire or bands, hydrants, valves, gates, water meters, corporation clocks, or any and all kinds of fittings used in connection with water works, and to act as agents for the manufacturer of any property in any case where the Company shall think it necessary or convenient so to do for the purposes of its business:

(l.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real and personal property, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade:

(m.) To construct, maintain and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(n.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, tramways, railways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and any other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof:

(o.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To borrow, raise or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon any or all of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(q.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares of the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(r.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(s.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

To acquire from the Government, either Provincial or Dominion, or otherwise, any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges as may be found necessary or desirable for the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence or other executive or legislative authority :

(n.) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein stated objects, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company :

(o.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions or co-operation with any person or company carrying on, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorised to carry on, or engage in any business transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares, or stock, or securities in any company, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, and use, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares or securities :

(p.) To divert, take and carry away water from any stream, river and lake in British Columbia, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, and to locate and apply for and obtain water rights and water records, and to carry on the business of a power company, and to supply and sell light, heat, water and power :

(q.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water, or by the purchase of water records or water privileges, and to render water and water-power available for use, application and distribution by means of and by the purchase or erection or carrying out and the maintaining of any works, erections, undertakings or improvements whatsoever, and to operate and carry on the business of a power company, and to use water and water-power for producing any form of power, and for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat and power, and to sell and supply compressed air, electricity and electric power and any other forms of developed power to consumers for any purposes to or for which compressed air, electric power or any other form of developed power may be applied or required :

(r.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined :

(s.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined :

(t.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them :

(u.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or of Legislature to enable the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for dissolving the Company and re-incorporating its members as a new company, for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for effecting any other modification in the constitution of the Company.

The objects for which the Company has been established and licensed are:—

1. To carry on throughout Canada and elsewhere the business of lumberers, timber merchants and manufacturers of timber and lumber in all its branches, and all other business incidental thereto or connected therewith, including the manufacture of all products of the forest or lumber industry:

2. To acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise and to own, utilise, and operate timber limits, timber lands, and timber berths, and rights in such timber lands, timber limits and timber berths, licences or rights to cut timber, lumber yards, mill and factory sites, water lots, docks, wharves, piers, dams, slides, aqueducts, viaducts, steamboats and other vessels, saw-mills, pulp mills, water and steam powers, hydraulic powers, plants, improvements in lakes, rivers and creeks, and other waterways for lumbering or transporting logs, timber and all other rights and interests of every kind appertaining to any of the above enumerated property so acquired, as may be necessary for the development and purposes of the Company, and the said property above specified or any of it, to improve and develop, sell, mortgage, exchange, lease or dispose of for cash, or upon rentals, or for any other consideration as may be in the interests of the Company:

3. To construct, operate, charter and employ vessels of all kinds for the purposes and business of the Company, and for the purpose of transporting products of the mills and works or other materials or manufacturers for any place within Canada or elsewhere, and to do a transportation business in Canada or elsewhere, to lease or acquire all accessories necessary for the proper working of the said vessels, and to lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of said vessels, or accessories, or moveable effects in relation thereto as it may be advisable in the interests of the Company:

4. To construct, or aid, or subscribe towards the construction, maintenance and improvements of roads, docks, piers, dams, slides, aqueducts, viaducts or other works and buildings, including flumes, bridges, ditches, water, steam or other hydraulic rights or powers, and any other works necessary for the purposes of the Company or for the carrying out of the Company's powers:

5. To establish shops or stores on the property of the Company and to sell merchandise thereon, in so far as it may be necessary for the Company to carry on its said business:

6. To acquire, own, sell, lease and dispose of shares, debentures and securities in any other company similar to this Company, and to acquire or amalgamate with any company having objects similar to the Company hereby incorporated, on such terms and for such considerations as the directors may decide, and to pay for the acquisition of any such company in shares of the Company fully paid up and made non-assessable for calls:

7. To make, allot and use in payment, or exchange in whole or in part for any real or personal property, rights, licences and privileges which may be purchased, taken on lease, or otherwise acquired by the Company, shares of the unsubscribed capital stock of the Company as paid up and made non-assessable for calls in accordance with the terms of an agreement executed by and between the Company and any such vendor, lessor, or other grantor on or before the issue of such paid-up shares, and which shares shall thereupon be deemed and taken to have been fully paid up, and shall not thereafter be liable for calls or future assessments:

8. To make, allot and issue as paid up stock, shares of the unscribed capital stock of the Company for services rendered to the Company or to the promoters thereof, provided a by-law of the directors is passed specifying that the value given to the Company is equivalent to the value of the shares so made paid up and issued and allotted for such services, and said by-law has been passed and sanctioned by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the shareholders of the said Company present in person or by proxy at a special general meeting of the Company duly called for the approval of said by-law:

9. To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures and securities of any company having objects similar, or in part similar, to those of this Company, provided a by-law is passed by the directors specifying the consideration which the Company will receive for the said sale, and the said by-law shall have been passed and sanctioned by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the shareholders of the Company, passed at a special general meeting of the Company called for the purposes of considering and approving of said by-law. de20

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO
PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows.—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one news paper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

57. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House a sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by rule 59, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10½ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Two hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By new Rule 65A, passed on the 2nd April, 1901 (see Journals, 1901, page 58), a model form of Railway Bill is adopted.

By 65B all Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

Dated 5th November, 1901.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 1,646.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The International Turpentine Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into four thousand vendor's shares and six thousand ordinary shares, all of five dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 7th day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over from John Mulholland and William George Alcock a secret process for extracting turpentine and other by-products from wood, and a new retort, invented by them to be used in connection with said process, and with a view thereto to adopt the agreement referred to in clause four (4) of the Company's Articles of Association, and to carry the same into effect, with or without modification:

(b.) To carry on business of producers of turpentine, creosote oil, tar, pitch, wood alcohol, gas, and other by-products of wood in all or any of its branches, and to manufacture, buy, sell or otherwise deal with the same:

(c.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, exchange or otherwise acquire any timber lands or other lands in fee or otherwise, and also timber and timber limits by lease, licence or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber and other trees, and generally any real and personal property, and any rights or privileges which this Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(d.) To purchase, lease, construct or otherwise acquire and hold warehouses, wharves, manufactories and other buildings and easements in the Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere, as may be found necessary or desirable for carrying on and furthering the business and objects of this Company, and to sell, lease, mortgage, hypothecate or otherwise deal with the same or any part thereof:

(e.) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire any business similar in character or objects to the business of this Company:

(f.) To carry on the business of general merchants (wholesale and retail), and also to conduct and carry on the business of general storekeepers, and to purchase and supply all goods and merchandise that the Company may see fit to buy for that purpose, and to sell the same wholesale or retail as they may think fit; also to carry on a general mercantile, commission and brokerage business:

(g.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions and the like, or any interest therein conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or any information as to any invention, or generally any invention which may be capable of being used for the benefit of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to use, exercise, develop or grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any such patents, patent rights, property or information so acquired:

(h.) To carry on the business of the purchase, sale, manufacture, working and generally turning to account patents, patent and patent rights, and such other business or businesses in connection therewith as this Company may from time to time deem advisable, and to carry on such business or businesses, either in the Province of British Columbia or any other place or country, as the said Company may from time to time decide:

(i.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above or any of the above objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or lands, and to do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(j.) To divert, take and carry away water from any stream, river and lake in British Columbia for the use of their business; and for that purpose to erect, build, lay and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same :

(k.) To construct, improve, maintain, equip, alter, work, operate, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, water powers, reservoirs, aqueducts, canals, sluices, flumes, tramways, logging railways operated by steam, electricity, or other mechanical power, telephone lines, electric supply lines, bridges, wharves, booms, timber slides, booming grounds, manufactories, warehouses, hydraulic works, electric works, houses, shops, hotels, boarding houses, stores, buildings and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance this Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidise, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though undertaken, constructed or maintained by any other person or company :

(l.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government, authorities or corporation (municipal, local or otherwise), that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, authority or corporation any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions :

(m.) To lend and advance moneys to such persons or companies and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers or any persons or companies having dealings with this Company ; and to make, draw, accept, indorse and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable securities or instruments :

(n.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company :

(o.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company :

(p.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, any real and personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business :

(q.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off such securities :

(r.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments :

(s.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(t.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by the publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards and donations :

(u.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company :

(v.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(w.) To enter into partnership or into arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any person, firm or company of persons, firms or companies, carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company ; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same :

(x.) To issue shares, as fully or partly paid up, for property or rights required by the Company, for work done, or services of any kind rendered to, or in behalf of, the Company, or for any valuable consideration other than the actual payment of cash :

(y.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any other part of the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere :

(z.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members :

(z1.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others :

(z2.) To do all such things as the Company may think incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(z3.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company and the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commission for obtaining application for or placing shares.

And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in the memorandum, except when used with reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the British Dominions or elsewhere :

And it is hereby declared that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

(i.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(j.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(k.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, or association, or company, possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash, or to issue, any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company:

(l.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(m.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(o.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after, acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(p.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with, or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(q.) To take and otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(r.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(s.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing, or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(t.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with the undertaking, or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any other company:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(v.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed or recognised in any Province or Territory in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

It is hereby declared that the intention is, that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph, or the name of the Company.

No. 1,648.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Prince Rupert Gas and Electric Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one hundred thousand shares of one dollar each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 8th day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere in other parts of the world, the business of a Power Company within the meaning of Part IV. of the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897," of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, to the same extent as if the Company had been duly incorporated under the provisions of Part IV. of the said "Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897," and to acquire any necessary licences therefor; to pay all such fees and charges and execute and do all such documents and things as may be required to obtain the benefits and advantages conferred on a power company by the aforesaid Acts:

(2.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water power, or by the purchase of water records or water privileges for, and the application of such water and water power to all or any purposes, and in any manner or method.

(3.) To render water and water-power available for use, application and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water, or extending the area thereof; diverting the waters of any stream, pond or lake into any channel or channels; laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe or wire; constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvement and use of water and water-power, power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(4.) To use water or water power for hydraulic mining purposes, and for milling, manufacturing, industrial and mechanical purposes:

(5.) To use water and water-power for providing any form of power, or for producing or generating electricity for purposes of light, heat or power:

(6.) To construct, operate and maintain electric works, power houses, generating plant or any other appliances or conveniences useful, necessary or proper for generating electricity or electric power, or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company or by any other person or companies contracting with this Company therefor as a motive power for the operating of motors, machinery or electric works, or to be supplied to consumers for heating, or as a motive for propelling tramways, or for driving, hauling, lifting, pumping, lighting, crushing, smelting, drilling, milling, or for any other operations to which it may be adapted, or to be used or supplied for or in connection with any other purposes for which power may be applied or acquired:

(7.) To place, sink, lay, fit, maintain and repair electric lines, accumulators, storage batteries, cables, mains, wires, pipes, switches, connections, branches, electric motors, dynamos, engines, machines, or other apparatus or devices, cuts, drains, water-courses, pipes, poles, buildings, and other erections and works, and to erect and place any electric line, cable, main, wire or other electric apparatus above or below ground:

(8.) To construct, equip, operate and maintain electric, cable or other tramways, or start railways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(9.) To construct, equip, operate and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(10.) To carry on the business of electricians, mechanical engineers, and manufacturers and workers and dealers in electricity, motive power and light and any business in which the application of electricity, or any like power, or any power that can be used as a substitute therefor, is or may be useful, convenient or ornamental, or any other business of like nature, and to produce and accumulate electricity and electric motive power or other similar agency, and to supply the same for the production, transmission or use of any lighting, heating, motive or other power as may be thought advisable, and to light streets, public places, public or private buildings, foundries, mines, ships, lighthouses, railways, tramways and other places, or things, by means of electricity, or to enable the same so to be lighted, and generally to carry on the business of suppliers of light, heat and power, and carriers of passengers and goods:

(11.) To supply compressed air, electricity or electric power, or any other form of developed power, to consumers, for any purpose to or for which developed power may be applied or required:

(12.) To acquire, hold, enjoy and exercise, subject to the provisions of the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897," all the rights, powers, privileges and priorities by Part IV. of, or otherwise by said Act conferred upon Power Companies, so far as the company may deem the same necessary for its purposes or any of them:

(13.) To enter into any arrangement with the Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges or concessions, and to acquire from any "concessionaire" any subsidies, charters, rights, privileges or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, comply with and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges and concessions:

(14.) To carry on the trades or businesses of iron masters, steel makers, steel converters, colliery proprietors, coke manufacturers, miners, smelters, engineers, tiuplate makers, and iron founders, in all their respective branches:

(15.) To search for, get, work, raise, make merchantable, sell and deal in iron, coal, ironstone, brick-earth, bricks, and other metals, minerals and substances, and to manufacture and sell patent fuel:

(16.) To carry on business as manufacturers of chemicals and manures, distillers, dye makers, gas makers, metallurgists, and mechanical engineers, and to carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(17.) To purchase, charter, hire, build or otherwise acquire steam and other ships or vessels, with all equipments and furniture, and to employ the same in the carriage of any of the articles or merchandise manufactured by the Company, or of any material, products, articles or merchandise required by the Company for the purposes of its undertaking:

(18.) To construct and establish at Prince Rupert, Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere in the Dominion of Canada or abroad, a dock with patent or other slips, workshops, buildings, machinery, warehouses and other conveniences:

(19.) To carry on the business of proprietors of docks, wharves, jetties, piers, warehouses, and stores, and of ship owners, ship builders, shipwrights, engineers, dredgers, tug owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, commission agents, merchants and any other businesses which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the above:

(20.) To manufacture, sell and supply gas light, either by means of coal gas or acetylene gas, in the City of Prince Rupert and elsewhere in the Province of British Columbia, and to carry on the business of a gas works company in all its branches:

(21.) To deal with, manufacture and render saleable coke, coal tar, pitch, asphaltum, ammonical liquor and other residual products obtained in the manufacture of gas:

(22.) To construct, manufacture and maintain works for holding, receiving, purifying gas, and all other buildings and works, meters, pipes, fittings, machinery, apparatus and appliances convenient or necessary for the purposes of the Company:

(23.) To manufacture, buy, sell, let or hire and deal in stoves, engines and other apparatus and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to promote the consumption of gas:

(24.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the Company's business, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(25.) To carry on in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere the trades or businesses of foresters, lumberers and timber merchants, producers and manufacturers of and dealers in rough and dressed timber, mining props, telegraph and telephone poles, and in connection with these objects to acquire timber lands rights and concessions and water power rights and privileges, and also to acquire absolutely, or for any term, estate or interest, land and hereditaments, and to acquire or construct mills, dams, warehouses, piers, wharves, stores and dwellings and all other kinds of erections or buildings, and to sell, lease, dispose of or otherwise deal with any such rights or properties:

(26.) To acquire, construct, maintain and use railways, tramways, docks, harbours, powers, wharves, canals, reservoirs, embankments and irrigations, reclamations, improvements, sewage, drainage, sanitary, water, gas, electric light, telephonic, telegraphic and electrical power supplies, works, warehouses, markets and all other works which may be conducive to the interests of the Company:

(27.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise any patents, patent rights, licences, secret processes, properties or businesses in any way connected with the objects of the Company, and to apply for and obtain patents and patent rights, either in the Dominion of Canada or abroad, and to sell or grant licences in respect of any such patents and patent rights and secret processes, and to manufacture and sell, or otherwise dispose of, any of the articles that can be manufactured under any of the patents, patent rights, licences or secret processes which may from time to time belong to the Company. Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights, privileges or property which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(28.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage or otherwise deal with lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company, or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint stock companies, or "societes anonymes," for the purpose of taking over, acquiring or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company, and either in the Dominion of Canada or abroad; to take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(29.) To give to any class or section of the persons having dealings with the Company any rights over or in relation to any fund or funds, or any part thereof, or the right to participate in the profits of the Company, or in the profits of any particular branch or part of its business or any other special privileges, advantages or benefits:

(30.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, liabilities and undertakings of any person, corporation or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be carried on so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(31.) To borrow, raise or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind whatsoever; to draw, make, accept, indorse, issue, execute and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants and other negotiable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital) or acceptances, endorsements or promissory notes of the Company and other negotiable instruments:

(32.) To lend or invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required; and to make advances upon such securities, stocks, shares and other property of all kinds, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, but in no case by a purchase of the shares of the Company:

(33.) To lend money to any company or person having dealings with this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such person or company:

(34.) To establish or aid in the establishment, and in the support of any associations for the benefit of persons employed by the Company; to obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution or for any other purpose calculated directly or indirectly to affect the Company's interests:

(35.) To register the Company abroad, and to take such other steps as may be necessary to give the Company, so far as may be, the same rights and privileges abroad as are possessed by foreign companies or partnerships of a like character:

(36.) To form, constitute or register abroad any company or "societe anonyme," in which the liability of the members shall be limited to the amount of their stocks or shares, and to transfer to or vest in, or cause to be transferred to or vested in, such company or companies, in trust for or on behalf of the Company, the Company's rights and privileges and other property and effects, or any part thereof, and to take all steps requisite to render such transfer or vesting valid and effectual:

(37.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of the Company, or otherwise, and for such considerations either in shares or debentures of another company, or cash, as the Company may think fit; to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company:

(38.) To distribute the proceeds of the sale of the property of the Company, or any part thereof, among the members, whether the same be paid for wholly or partly in shares, debentures, or other securities, or in cash, provided that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court, if necessary; to distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(39.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing, or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business:

(40.) To do all or any of the above things either as principal or agent, and either in the Dominion of Canada or abroad:

(41.) And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in this memorandum, except where used in reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any person or persons, partnership, "societe anonyme," or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and whether formed or carrying on business in the Dominion of Canada or abroad. ja10

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 1,647.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Morrison-Crawford, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of ten thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of ten dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 7th day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on, in the Province of British Columbia and elsewhere, the business of wholesale and retail gas fitters, plumbers, sheet metal workers, sanitary, lighting and electrical engineers and contractors and builders in all of their branches, manufacturers of and dealers in hardware, stoves, furnaces, tinware, paints, oils, house furnishings, builders' supplies, ship chandlery, machinery, etc., and all or any other articles of merchandise which the Company may see fit to deal in:

(b.) To make advances in cash, goods, or other supplies to other persons, companies, or firms, and to take and hold real and personal securities for the same:

(c.) To lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire, hold and sell real estate, and stocks, bonds and shares of other corporations, or shares or interests in any other business, whether incorporated or not:

(d.) To build, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire and operate manufactories:

(e.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(f.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(g.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, mortgages, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(h.) To borrow, or raise, or secure payment of money in such manner or form as this Company may think fit, and to pay off such indebtedness, and to redeem any securities given:

(i.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(j.) To pay for any property that may be acquired by the Company as hereinbefore stated, either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such fully paid-up shares:

(k.) To increase the capital of the Company by the issue of new shares, or to amalgamate with any other company now or hereafter incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or to reduce the capital by cancellation of shares:

(l.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them. ja10

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 1,648.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Prince Rupert Gas and Electric Light Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one hundred thousand shares of one dollar each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 8th day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere in other parts of the world, the business of a Power Company within the meaning of Part IV. of the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897," of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, to the same extent as if the Company had been duly incorporated under the provisions of Part IV. of the said "Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897," and to acquire any necessary licences therefor; to pay all such fees and charges and execute and do all such documents and things as may be required to obtain the benefits and advantages conferred on a power company by the aforesaid Acts:

(2.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water power, or by the purchase of water records or water privileges for, and the application of such water and water power to all or any purposes, and in any manner or method.

(3.) To render water and water-power available for use, application and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water, or extending the area thereof; diverting the waters of any stream, pond or lake into any channel or channels; laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe or wire; constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvement and use of water and water-power, power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(4.) To use water or water power for hydraulic mining purposes, and for milling, manufacturing, industrial and mechanical purposes:

(5.) To use water and water-power for providing any form of power, or for producing or generating electricity for purposes of light, heat or power:

(6.) To construct, operate and maintain electric works, power houses, generating plant or any other appliances or conveniences useful, necessary or proper for generating electricity or electric power, or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company or by any other person or companies contracting with this Company therefor as a motive power for the operating of motors, machinery or electric works, or to be supplied to consumers for heating, or as a motive for propelling tramways, or for driving, hauling, lifting, pumping, lighting, crushing, smelting, drilling, milling, or for any other operations to which it may be adapted, or to be used or supplied for or in connection with any other purposes for which power may be applied or acquired:

(7.) To place, sink, lay, fit, maintain and repair electric lines, accumulators, storage batteries, cables, mains, wires, pipes, switches, connections, branches, electric motors, dynamos, engines, machines, or other apparatus or devices, cuts, drains, water-courses, pipes, poles, buildings, and other erections and works, and to erect and place any electric line, cable, main, wire or other electric apparatus above or below ground:

(8.) To construct, equip, operate and maintain electric, cable or other tramways, or start railways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(9.) To construct, equip, operate and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(10.) To carry on the business of electricians, mechanical engineers, and manufacturers and workers and dealers in electricity, motive power and light and any business in which the application of electricity, or any like power, or any power that can be used as a substitute therefor, is or may be useful, convenient or ornamental, or any other business of like nature, and to produce and accumulate electricity and electric motive power or other similar agency, and to supply the same for the production, transmission or use of any lighting, heating, motive or other power as may be thought advisable, and to light streets, public places, public or private buildings, foundries, mines, ships, lighthouses, railways, tramways and other places, or things, by means of electricity, or to enable the same so to be lighted, and generally to carry on the business of suppliers of light, heat and power, and carriers of passengers and goods:

(11.) To supply compressed air, electricity or electric power, or any other form of developed power, to consumers, for any purpose to or for which developed power may be applied or required:

(12.) To acquire, hold, enjoy and exercise, subject to the provisions of the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897," all the rights, powers, privileges and priorities by Part IV. of, or otherwise by said Act conferred upon Power Companies, so far as the company may deem the same necessary for its purposes or any of them:

(13.) To enter into any arrangement with the Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges or concessions, and to acquire from any "concessionaire" any subsidies, charters, rights, privileges or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, comply with and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges and concessions:

(14.) To carry on the trades or businesses of iron masters, steel makers, steel converters, colliery proprietors, coke manufacturers, miners, smelters, engineers, tinplate makers, and iron founders, in all their respective branches:

(15.) To search for, get, work, raise, make merchantable, sell and deal in iron, coal, ironstone, brick-earth, bricks, and other metals, minerals and substances, and to manufacture and sell patent fuel:

(16.) To carry on business as manufacturers of chemicals and manures, distillers, dye makers, gas makers, metallurgists, and mechanical engineers, and to carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(17.) To purchase, charter, hire, build or otherwise acquire steam and other ships or vessels, with all equipments and furniture, and to employ the same in the carriage of any of the articles or merchandise manufactured by the Company, or of any material, products, articles or merchandise required by the Company for the purposes of its undertaking:

(18.) To construct and establish at Prince Rupert, Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere in the Dominion of Canada or abroad, a dock with patent or other slips, workshops, buildings, machinery, warehouses and other conveniences:

(19.) To carry on the business of proprietors of docks, wharves, jetties, piers, warehouses, and stores, and of ship owners, ship builders, shipwrights, engineers, dredgers, tug owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, commission agents, merchants and any other businesses which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the above:

(20.) To manufacture, sell and supply gas light, either by means of coal gas or acetylene gas, in the City of Prince Rupert and elsewhere in the Province of British Columbia, and to carry on the business of a gas works company in all its branches :

(21.) To deal with, manufacture and render saleable coke, coal tar, pitch, asphaltum, ammoniacal liquor and other residual products obtained in the manufacture of gas :

(22.) To construct, manufacture and maintain works for holding, receiving, purifying gas, and all other buildings and works, meters, pipes, fittings, machinery, apparatus and appliances convenient or necessary for the purposes of the Company :

(23.) To manufacture, buy, sell, let or hire and deal in stoves, engines and other apparatus and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to promote the consumption of gas :

(24.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the Company's business, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights :

(25.) To carry on in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere the trades or businesses of foresters, lumberers and timber merchants, producers and manufacturers of and dealers in rough and dressed timber, mining props, telegraph and telephone poles, and in connection with these objects to acquire timber lands rights and concessions and water power rights and privileges, and also to acquire absolutely, or for any term, estate or interest, land and hereditaments, and to acquire or construct mills, dams, warehouses, piers, wharves, stores and dwellings and all other kinds of erections or buildings, and to sell, lease, dispose of or otherwise deal with any such rights or properties :

(26.) To acquire, construct, maintain and use railways, tramways, docks, harbours, powers, wharves, canals, reservoirs, embankments and irrigations, reclamations, improvements, sewage, drainage, sanitary, water, gas, electric light, telephonic, telegraphic and electrical power supplies, works, warehouses, markets and all other works which may be conducive to the interests of the Company :

(27.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise any patents, patent rights, licences, secret processes, properties or businesses in any way connected with the objects of the Company, and to apply for and obtain patents and patent rights, either in the Dominion of Canada or abroad, and to sell or grant licences in respect of any such patents and patent rights and secret processes, and to manufacture and sell, or otherwise dispose of, any of the articles that can be manufactured under any of the patents, patent rights, licences or secret processes which may from time to time belong to the Company. Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights, privileges or property which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business :

(28.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage or otherwise deal with lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company, or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon ; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint stock companies, or "societes anonymes," for the purpose of taking over, acquiring or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company, and either in the Dominion of Canada or abroad ; to take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company :

(29.) To give to any class or section of the persons having dealings with the Company any rights over or in relation to any fund or funds, or any part thereof, or the right to participate in the profits of the Company, or in the profits of any particular branch or part of its business or any other special privileges, advantages or benefits :

(30.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, liabilities and undertakings of any person, corporation or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be carried on so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company :

(31.) To borrow, raise or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind whatsoever ; to draw, make, accept, indorse, issue, execute and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants and other negotiable instruments ; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital) or acceptances, endorsements or promissory notes of the Company and other negotiable instruments :

(32.) To lend or invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required ; and to make advances upon such securities, stocks, shares and other property of all kinds, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, but in no case by a purchase of the shares of the Company :

(33.) To lend money to any company or person having dealings with this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such person or company :

(34.) To establish or aid in the establishment, and in the support of any associations for the benefit of persons employed by the Company ; to obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution or for any other purpose calculated directly or indirectly to affect the Company's interests :

(35.) To register the Company abroad, and to take such other steps as may be necessary to give the Company, so far as may be, the same rights and privileges abroad as are possessed by foreign companies or partnerships of a like character :

(36.) To form, constitute or register abroad any company or "societe anonyme," in which the liability of the members shall be limited to the amount of their stocks or shares, and to transfer to or vest in, or cause to be transferred to or vested in, such company or companies, in trust for or on behalf of the Company, the Company's rights and privileges and other property and effects, or any part thereof, and to take all steps requisite to render such transfer or vesting valid and effectual :

(37.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of the Company, or otherwise, and for such considerations either in shares or debentures of another company, or cash, as the Company may think fit ; to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company :

(38.) To distribute the proceeds of the sale of the property of the Company, or any part thereof, among the members, whether the same be paid for wholly or partly in shares, debentures, or other securities, or in cash, provided that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court, if necessary ; to distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie :

(39.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing, or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business :

(40.) To do all or any of the above things either as principal or agent, and either in the Dominion of Canada or abroad :

(41.) And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in this memorandum, except where used in reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any person or persons, partnership, "societe anonyme," or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and whether formed or carrying on business in the Dominion of Canada or abroad. ja10
